A LIVING MEMORIAL IS...

Satisfying

At a time of profound loss, one feels the desire to perpetuate the memory of the loved one or friend recently departed. When the flowers have faded and the soft words have been spoken, it is comforting to know a loved one's memory can be of more enduring significance.

Meaningful

A memorial gift in the name of a loved one to Adult & Teen Challenge of St. Louis (ATCSTL) serves a two-fold purpose. First, it provides a remembrance of the one departed. Second, the monetary tribute helps ATCSTL to continue caring for the needs of troubled young men and women.

Personal

Regardless of the amount, a memorial gift is especially appropriate. Personal notification is sent to the bereaved family. The name of the donor is recognized with notice of the memorial listed in our newsletter.

Effective

Your gift to ATCSTL carries the privilege of a tax deduction. An official tax-deductible receipt will add to the effectiveness of your memorial gift.

“He has restored my mind, body and soul and I thank Him, praise Him and give glory to His name...”

Hannah's Testimony

I grew up in a very loving family with all the opportunities in the world. My parents took great care of me and my siblings and I never knew any real trauma. Nor did I have any real knowledge of God or Jesus Christ other than my grandma telling me that the man upstairs is watching me and loves me. It all sounded like a fantasy to me. When I hit 19 I was introduced to a man who brought me to my knees with fear, in the worst way. I began drinking and using drugs to cover my pain.

I kept trying in my own strength to bring myself out of addiction. I could not. After 15 years of addiction, the separation of my family and I became permanent. My parents took my two girls at 8 and one year of age and told me I could not come in their house. It took me to living on the streets of St. Louis for the next two years. Right at the end of that two years I ended up staying with a man I did not know in an abandoned house with no food and no money. After a desperate call to a friend and an even more desperate prayer to God, “God, if you’re real, take my life. I can’t do this anymore.”

God moved so intensely and so quickly it takes my breath away now. God sent my friend on a mission to contact me and locate me downtown. By the next 24 hours God had me here at Diane’s House Adult & Teen Challenge of St. Louis.

Never could I have imagined my prayer to be answered the way He did or even at all. I gave my life to Jesus on my knees the night I arrived here, and it’s been so beautiful the work He has done in and through me. My family is being restored, I have seen my girls, and I have hope for a real future serving Him. I first feared that I would lose sight of His love and greatness when I would leave here. Then He spoke to me through His word.

Jeremiah 32:40 – And I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will put a desire in their hearts to worship me, and they will never leave me.

I will always hold that verse in my heart. He has restored my mind, body and soul and I thank Him, praise Him and give glory to His name all the days of my life.
